MEET THE 2010 BOARD

SEPTEMBER 8, 2010

Min ju Kim President

Hello everybody! My name is Min Ju Kim and I'm your president for ASA yayy I am sooo EXCITED to spend the rest of the semester with you guys ☑ Before anything, let me just introduce myself a little. I'm a junior bio major student who lovessss eating and sleeping. I lived in Korea for more than 10 years and spent 4 years in Cali where most of my high school friends are. Red is my favorite color, and onion's my favorite vegetable.

I have been involved in ASA since my first week of college years. I was first a PR member for a semester and then joined the board as a PR head for a year. (YEEAAAAA MICHAEL CHANG IS THE BEST PR PARTNER) ASA has been my BIGGEST part of college life that if people ask me what I did in college when I'm 50 years old, I would say ASA and BOOOOOOF (You'll get to see what this is later :P)

ASA is the place where you find the coolest people ☑ First, we are not Asian-exclusive, but Asian-interest. Anyone is WELCOME to join and be part of the organization that represents the greatness of all Asian communities in CMU.

ASA is the place where you find the coolest people ☑ First, we are not Asian-exclusive, but Asian-interest. Anyone is WELCOME to join and be part of the organization that represents the greatness of all Asian communities in CMU. Tradition of excellence, great bonding with people, campus-wide cultural and social events, mentor and mentees, and ASA Lovin... this is what ASA is all about. We try our best to spread the awareness of Asian culture and enhance public understanding of different cultures and ethnic values among Asian countries either past or present. ASA has grown exponentially not only in size but also in influential presence on campus as the biggest largest cultural affinity group. In order to have ASA continually develop, we need YOU—each one of you who LOVES ASA!

This year is going to really exciting! Not only the board members but also all the upperclassmen in ASA are ready to serve you with their full heart and plan crazy, fun events ☑ If you have any ideas, comments or even criticisms, please tell us. We are open to any type of opinion to work our best for ASA. Also if you want to be more involved in ASA, please join the PR committee! Being a PR committee member, you will have more responsibilities such as tabling, chalking and coming to mandatory meetings! Ask Ann Lee or Bob Kim (our wonderfull PR HEADS) about more information ☑

Also we have something called the freshmen reps ☑ If you want to be involved in ASA more than just being a PR committee member, you should run for it!! You will be part of our board for at least 3 months having more responsibility and fun! We need two representatives of freshmen who can connect us with the freshmen ☑ If you are interested, there will be sign ups from next week PR meeting, so come and interview ☑ ANYONE IS WELCOME TO BE OUR FRESH REP!!

This semester is going to be filled with MANY EVENTS such as culture night dance and skit, Asian Student Leadership Conference, Black and White party and so many other smaller eventsss. But these can only happen and be successful ONLY IF all of you guys are part of it ☑ so come join the family with us!

ASA LOVIN'!! hehe

Love,

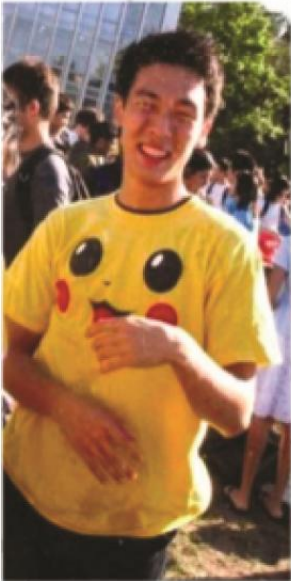

Min Ju Kim

Donald Huh Vice President

Hi my name is Donald. I'm currently a junior computer science major and this year's vice president for ASA. I love eating and drinking and I have good taste for music. I also appreciate other people who have these same interests! Anyway I hope you guys come out to our events this year because it's going to be a fantastic one and I hope to be seeing you guys around!

Chris Jo Secretary

Hello ASA :) My name is Chris Jo and I am the secretary of ASA. I am a Senior in ECE from Korea, and this is my fourth year in ASA. I love ASA not only because it has cute girls, but the experience I shared with other members has taught me the "other side" of college life. You will learn life-long lessons you cannot pick up in class, and build friendships that last throughout your college years (and hopefully much longer). Don't be afraid to talk to one of us if you have any questions, and make yourself part of what is one of CMU's greatest traditions!

Ina Joo Treasurer

I'm Ina Joo, your treasurer. I'm Junior majoring in Chemical Engineering and Biomedical Engineering. I've been in ASA since my freshman year and I'm still loving it. It has been a place where I could clear my mind off school work and enjoy my college life. It gave me an opportunity to meet many amazing individuals. I've built strong relationships with ASA members along with unforgettable memories. Booth is definitely a once in a life time experience that I would like to share with everyone. Not to mention, ASA knows best how to party and have a good time :) . It maybe hard to explain what ASA is about because you gotta experience it to really know how amazing it is ;) . I'll always be down to eat and hang out! I hope to get to know each and everyone of you. Don't hesitate to approach me and ask me questions!

Ann Lee
PR Head

Hey guys :)

My name is Ann Lee and I am the PR head of ASA. I'm currently a Sophomore MSE/BME major. I'm from Chicago, Illinois and have yet to find someone in ASA who is from there!! :( The reason I joined ASA was because I met some amazing people and made really close friendships with them. I hope that you guys would too be able to see how much ASA love we have! Anyways, I am so excited to meet all of you and I hope to get to know each and every one of you :)

Bob Kim
PR Head

I'm your every-day 6ft tall 200lbs Korean guy you know from back home. The dude who loves Food/K-Drama/Food/K-pop (although he can't sing/dance to them), Food and absolutely can't live without Food. You know, the guy who always has your back whether you are facing the WHOLE crowd of rumors or a mountain of boxes to move for your move-in or a long walk back home and is in need of a friend who will walk that distance with you. Still Fuzzy about what kind of person i am? Well you know the guy who always wears a smile on his face and a pair of dark-circles under his eyes who can talk about Manga/Anime while writing up his fantasy spread sheet on NFL after he edits your paper on Rand's Objectivism? Yea, yea now you're getting it; I'm just the typical 6-ft tall Asian man *weighing at a tenth of a ton* who everyone knows loves his food and the friends and ASA with All my Heart and my Stomach. If you don't know anyone from back home who fits this description; NOW you got one! If you do~ Contact me~! I wanna see my doppleganger :P

Karen Liu
Culture Chair

Hi, I'm Karen. I'm a sophomore Business major, and super Asian-fied. I'm Taiwanese, but also a quarter Japanese! It's probably because of this that I am obsessed with cute things, stationary, pens and pencils, anime...and sweetsss. I like badminton, ping pong, volleyball, snowboarding, and bowling the best. This semester I'm the Chair for the Asian Students Leadership Conference, hosted by ASA, so ask me if you have any questions about it! It'll be funnn. :)
