

Abdelrahman Abdelmoneem

New Al-Rayyan, Doha, Qatar • +974 33580870 • abdelrahmanelsayed2007@gmail.com

EDUCATION

Carnegie Mellon University in Qatar (CMU-Q) 2026 – Present

B.Sc. in Computer Science

Qatar University 2025 – 2026

B.Sc. in Computer Science

COMPETITIONS & ACHIEVEMENTS

AI Innovation Program — 1st Place, Junior Track 2026

Qatar University AI Organization

- Completed 10 workshops covering AI fundamentals, business strategy, and market analysis
- Team won 1st place in the junior track pitch contest
- Currently in Phase 2: building a working prototype, with potential to represent institution at external competitions

Artificial Intelligence Olympiad (AIO) 2025

Represented Qatar at the AIO in Jordan, organized by Qatar's Ministry of Education — won 1st place individually and with the national team

Project S.I.L.E.N.C.E. — AI Coding Contest, 3rd Place 2025

Qatar University AI Organization

- Team contest combining cryptography and machine learning to decipher a hidden narrative from encrypted data

Future Programmers Coding Contest — Jordan 2024

Selected by Qatar's Ministry of Education to represent Qatar

QCPC 2024 — Carnegie Mellon University Qatar 2024

Qualified to participate in the ACPC Teens Contest held in Egypt

VOLUNTEER WORK

- Volunteered 25 hours with the Ehsan Foundation on a research initiative for elderly care and empowerment
- Logged 25 hours with Al-Rayyan Sports Club supporting community and youth activities

EXTRACURRICULAR

- Served as an active member of the Qatar University AI Organization since first semester
- Competed in regional and national contests with the Competitive Programming Club (2022–2025); tutored clubmates in algorithms and led presentations on programming topics
- Participated in schoolwide contests with the English Academic Writing Club (2023–2025), earning high recognition
- Represented school in the QNL Chess Tournament and the 2nd Jassim bin Hamad Chess Contest