

Ishita Gaur

E-mail: ishitagaur@gmail.com

Tel: 1-908-812-5640

Website: www.andrew.cmu.edu/user/igaur

Address:

11 Hans Voji Dr.
Franklin Park
NJ- 08823

Education:

Carnegie Mellon University, May 2011

Bachelors in Architecture

Minors in Architectural History, Philosophy
Completed 10 semesters of Design Studio

Also taken Undergraduate Architectural Thesis, Ethics and Decision Making in Architecture, Issues of Practice, Urban Design Methods, Advanced Construction, Advanced Building Systems, Drawing, Structures, Materials Assembly and Philosophy courses

Study Abroad and Independent Studies

Germany (Munich)- Summer 2008

Studied the Allianz Arena by Herzog & De Meuron

India (Chandigarh, Ahmadabad, Delhi)- Summer 2007

Travelled and studied the works of Le Corbusier

Important Projects:

Contemporizing History, Undergraduate Thesis Studio

Chandni Chowk, Delhi, Spring 2011

Located in the oldest part of Delhi, the hypothesis was that contemporary newer architecture built in older parts of ancient cities should acknowledge the old architecture as well as the density of buildings, people, culture and their lifestyles.

Street Character, Fifth Year Urban Lab Studio

Downtown, Pittsburgh, Fall 2010

A design to transform the streets of Downtown Pittsburgh in order to encourage more activities around the clock

Citylink Mall, Aedas Pte. Ltd

City Hall, Singapore, Summer 2010

Renovation of an existing underground mall connecting two Metro Stations. Included working on plan, section, elevation, RCP and detail drawings. Also produced documents for presentation to the client

Campus Hotel, Fourth Year Systems Integration Studio

Carnegie Mellon University Campus, Pittsburgh, Spring 2010

Located on the Carnegie Mellon University Campus, the new hotel employs state of the art building systems and also function as a portal for the campus

Performance Art Theater, Fourth Year Occupancy Studio

Joyce Theater, New York, Fall 2009

Located on the Ground Zero Complex, the center tries to bridge the gap between cultural, memorial and commercial aspects of the site

Sentosa Boardwalk, Aedas Pte. Ltd

Sentosa, Singapore, Summer 2009

Worked on the design development of the Sentosa Boardwalk, which is currently in construction. Developed the primary curve of the structure in Rhino3D to incorporate the programmatic elements with the design intent

Surface Project, First Year Space Studio

Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, Spring 2007

Designed a surface that when combined with another student's surface created space. Developed skills in the wood shop and the metal shop while building the project

Skills:

Digital Skills:

AutoCAD 2009, Rhino 3D, Revit
Architecture 2009, Adobe
Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign,
Dreamweaver, GIS CAFM
Softwares, Basic knowledge of
Maya 8.0

Hand Skills:

Model Building, Perspective
Drawings, Drafting. Experience in the Wood shop and the Metal shop

Languages:

English and Hindi

Recognition and Activities:

Among Top 5 Designs

Design Sketch Problem
January 2010

Third Place

Design Sketch Problem
January 2009

Chief Editor

Sandesh, School Magazine
Modern School
August 2005- May 2006

Member

Mayur- SASA
Carnegie Mellon University
August 2006- May 2011

Work Experience and Volunteer Work:

Aedas Pte. Ltd

Singapore: Summer 2010 and 2009, Full time Architectural Assistant

Created Details for renovation of an Underground Mall, CityLink Mall. Initial Proposal for Mixed use Office Building. Assisted in the design of Sentosa Board Walk, Singapore. Feasibility studies for a mall on Orchard Road, Singapore. Initial proposal of apartment housing in India

Modern Language Resource Center

Pittsburgh: August 2010- May 2011, Center Assistant

Work as the Resource Center Assistant. Primary Job requirements are desk attendant, answer questions and assist in using the softwares

Architect Harish Tripathi and Associates

New Delhi: Summer 2008, Full time Architectural Intern

Assisted in designing a small motel in New Delhi, India. Worked on AutoCad drawings

Sankalp

New Delhi, April 2004 - March 2006, Volunteer

Organized a camp to teach Indian Classical Dance to underprivileged children